EASTERN DATES TO APRIL 1[illegible]

WASHINGTON CITY

Congressional

Washington, April 1[illegible]. In the House [illegible] the House [illegible] [illegible] the Committee were [illegible]

[illegible] from the Committee on Ways and Means reported a bill to reduce the duties on imports and internal taxes. The bill was referred to a Committee of the Whole and made the special order for Wednesday next from day to day until disposed of.

[illegible] failed to get leave to report the minority bill.

[illegible] then proceeded to address the House.

Wright from the Committee on Finance reported without amendment a bill to establish an Assay office at Helena, M. T.

[illegible] from the Committee on Mines reported a bill to promote the development of the mining resources of the United States. Passed.

The Australian steamship bill was taken up. Morrill of Vermont moved to refer it to the Committee on Commerce with instructions to report a bill directing the Postmaster General to contract with the lowest bidder for a mail steamship service on both the Atlantic and Pacific. The bill was discussed by Ramsey, Cole and Nye in favor and Chandler, Buckingham and Sherman in opposition until the Senate went into Executive session.

Kellogg from the Conference Committee on the St. Croix and Lake Superior railroad bill reported that the committee was unable to agree.

Schofield moved that the House recede from its action, which would in effect be passing the bill as it came from the Senate.

Holman moved that the House adhere to its action, which would make it fail.

Schofield's motion was rejected—yeas 57, noes 11[illegible], and Holman's agreed to by 100 to 54.

The tariff bill introduced in the House to-day makes a total reduction of $[illegible] and provides for a diminution of one half of the present force of internal revenue employes.

Appointments

Among the internal revenue appointments to-day is that of Ebenezer McCullough, of California, store keeper.

The President has named Warren Barstow as Associate Justice of New Mexico.

The Senate has confirmed John I. Boyer as Receiver of Public Moneys at Walla Walla, W. T.

English News

London, April 16.—The counter case which was delivered to the Geneva Arbitration yesterday on behalf of the British Government was accompanied by a note informing the Arbitration that a misunderstanding exists between the English and American Governments relative to the claim of the latter for indirect losses classed under three heads—loss of transfer to American shipping to the British flag, loss from enhanced insurance, loss from a prolongation of the war—that the British Government do not admit these claims to be within the scope of the arbitration. The two Governments are now in correspondence in relation to these claims and pending the issue of the correspondence the British Government have concluded to present the counter case which is strictly confined to direct claims in the hope that the misunderstanding may be removed. The British Government formally and expressly notified the Arbitrators that the counter case has been presented without prejudice to the position assumed by the British in the correspondence alluded to and under an express reservation of her rights in the event of the difference continuing to exist between the parties. The note concludes by saying it is not necessary for any further communication to be sent to the Arbitrators.

A Nice Geneva special says it is feared the nature of this protest may prevent a settlement of the dispute between the two nations.

Miscellaneous News.

At Maiden Hill, a suburb of London, last night a shoemaker murdered his four children and then committed suicide. Supposed to be insane.

The following statement is authority for the reported difference between France and Germany. It was reported yesterday that the London Telegraph says: We regret to learn that the relations between France and Germany, the critical condition of which were made known through these columns, is casting a [illegible] anxiety among those who [illegible] The [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] grave complications may be avoided.

Robbery on the High Seas.

New York, April 16.—The third mate and [illegible] of the crew of the ship [illegible] were arrested yesterday on a charge of having robbed the cargo during the voyage from San Francisco.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

San Francisco, April 1[illegible].—The arguments in the case of McClosky, on trial for manslaughter in killing a soldier named McCarty in a Kearney street saloon, are now being made.

The Tenth Ward Republicans had a stormy time last night over the question of adopting resolutions against the Goat Island case on before nominating delegates to the State Convention. Resolutions expressing full confidence in the Committee of Safety of 100 were adopted. Feeling that the delegates to the Philadelphia Convention should be pledged against the concession as a party measure was largely in the ascendant.

Arrived—steamer Oriflamme from Portland.

Both the old board of pilot commissioners appointed by Haight and the new board appointed by Booth are holding regular sessions and appointing pilots, each claiming to be rightfully in office. A suit is to be brought to test the question of the legality of the new appointments.

The publishers of internal State papers raised last evening a sufficient fund to effect an organization, and after transacting some unimportant business adjourned.

The stock excitement is unabated. California street near Montgomery was crowded with eager [illegible] before 9 A. M.

Weather warm and showery, wind southeast.

It is stated that the steamer [illegible] Panama will touch at several Central American ports and will not arrive before the [illegible]

Patrick Lynch was the man who suicided by arsenic on Jessie street last night. He was a hopeless inebriate.

NEVADA

[illegible], April 16.—McKean Buchanan died in [illegible] of apoplexy.

Reverdy Johnson Too Fast.

You have many distinguished acquaintances [illegible] I am [illegible] and I will give you ten [illegible] all you sell.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES

The Grant Meeting

New York, April 1[illegible].—Arrangements for the meeting to-night to endorse President Grant are very complete and elaborate. It is anticipated that the great hall will not hold the crowd and stands for speakers and music are erected in the square facing the Institute. Among the signers of the call are Peter Cooper, Geo. [illegible], Edward Pierrepont, J. S. Morgan, H. H. Coffin, A. J. Stewart, J. G. Bennett, Sam. B. Ruggles, H. C. Bowen, J. A. [illegible], Rev. H. W. Beecher, Hon. Wash. Davis, and thousands of other representing the controlling interests in the metropolis.

Child Poisoner

[illegible], April 17.—On the verdict of the Coroner's jury, Mrs. Emily Lloyd has been lodged in jail to await the decision of the grand jury. She is charged with poisoning her husband and four children. The verdict is based on the fact of the sudden death of the alleged victims, that a druggist sold Mrs. Lloyd arsenic previous to their deaths several times, and that Prof. Towery, of Baltimore, found arsenic in the stomach of the last deceased daughter.

Political.

Chicago, April 1[illegible].—The Liberal Republicans of Illinois have written a letter indorsing the Cincinnati movement and inviting the co-operation of all Republicans who agree with them. The letter is essentially the same as that written by the New York Liberals, and is signed by some sixty prominent Republicans.

Four delegates appointed by the recent Liberal Republican Convention have written a letter stating that the use of their names was unauthorized.

Philadelphia, April 16.—At a meeting of the Republican Reform Committee this evening a resolution was adopted endorsing the nomination of Gen. Hartranft for Governor and favoring the nomination of Grant.

WASHINGTON CITY

Morse Memorial Services

Washington, April 16.—The hall of the House of Representatives was densely crowded this evening on the occasion of the memorial services in honor of Professor Morse. The Speaker of the House presided, assisted by Vice President Colfax. The President, his Cabinet, the Judges of the Supreme Court and the Governors of the States in person or by proxy occupied seats in the inner semi-circle. The Senators and Representatives occupied the other seats on the floor. The ceremony was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Adams, when Speaker Blaine delivered a brief introductory speech. Resolutions appropriate to the occasion were moved and seconded by Senator Patterson, who made some eloquent remarks. C. W. Field read telegrams from London, Cairo, Bombay, Batavia, Singapore and Hongkong. Dispatches were also read from Boston, St. Louis, San Francisco, New York, Philadelphia, and a great number of other cities. Fernando Wood, the only member of Congress present who voted for the first appropriation to aid of Professor Morse, gave the legislative history of the electro magnetic telegraph. Speeches were also made by Representatives Garfield, Cox, Voorhees and Banks. The ceremonies closed at 11 P. M.

Reply to Lord Granville

Washington, April 17.—The reply of our Government to Earl Granville's last note will go out by to-day's steamer. A copy of the American replication to the British case was received by the State Department and laid before the Cabinet yesterday, but was not read or discussed.

Secretary Fish has instructed our Consul at Bucharest to remonstrate against the outrages committed on Israelites in Roumania.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The British Claims.

London, April 16.—Earl Granville laid before the House of Lords to-night the counter case and note presented at Geneva yesterday by an agent of Great Britain. He stated that when the accompanying note and protest were delivered, Mr. Davis, agent of the United States, said his instructions did not contemplate the probability of such a note. This would further reserve to the Government of the United States the right to indicate the scope of the Treaty of Washington.

In the House of Commons Gladstone made a similar statement to that of Granville.

The arbitration is at a complete standstill until a reply is received from Washington to the English protest. The nature of the protest inspires but little hope of the success of the negotiations.

UTAH

Salt Lake, April 17.—The Mormon High Council meet to-morrow at the City Hall.

The [illegible] [illegible] all absorbing topic of conversation.

The Mormon organs, especially the Herald, are unexpectedly temperate in their comment. Herbert Mormons claim the entire overthrow of all opposition to church rule and declare for the banishment of all leading Gentiles and apostates to Mormonism. Though much depressed, these anticipate no trouble, but express a necessity of some Congressional act to protect the mining and other business interests of the Territory.

From San Francisco

San Francisco, April 17.—The ship Gem [illegible] has been chartered to carry a full cargo of flour and wheat to Batavia and will return with sugar and coffee. This is the largest shipment ever made to that port from the United States, and indicates the opening of a new market for California breadstuffs.

The Goose Lake Canal Company, to construct a canal from Goose Lake, Siskiyou county, Cal., through Pitt river canyon and slough, for water power, irrigation, etc., capital $500,000, was incorporated to-day, also the German Guard Fusileers, with $4,500 capital in shares of $10 each.

The jury in the case of McClusky, indicted for manslaughter in killing the soldier McCarthy, returned a verdict of not guilty. He was immediately arrested on the charge of stabbing the saloon keeper Schultz in the same affray in which McCarthy was killed, and will be tried for that.

The Committee of Safety of 100 held their first meeting to-day with open doors and the preliminary committee of seven made a report giving the object of the organization of the Committee of [illegible] and the following statement:

The name of this association shall be The Committee of 100.

It shall consist of members whose names have been heretofore published and such others as shall be hereafter added thereto.

The object of the Association shall be to consider the interests of San Francisco in respect to railroads and their important matters affecting public welfare. Its officers shall be a President, two Vice Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be [illegible] members of the Executive Committee.

There shall be an Executive Committee whose duty it shall be to arrange and execute the business of the Association and whose acts shall be subject to the approval of the general committee for the first three months.

The offices of the Association shall be filled as follows: For President, Hon. Wm. Alvord; 1st Vice President, [illegible]; 2d Vice President, [illegible] Hager; Secretary, Alfred Wheeler; Treasurer, J. J. Wheeler; For Executive Committee, John [illegible], W. T. Coleman, Tyler Curtis, [illegible], Alonzo Hayward, J. H. Hagar, C. A. Low, J. A. Morton, Fred Mason, Wm. Sherman, [illegible] F. McCrellish, Belden, [illegible] Cunningham, J. T. Doyle, Geo. H. Howard, [illegible], Chas. Main, W. W. Montague, A. J. [illegible], [illegible] Woodward and Wm. [illegible] Aldrich.

San Francisco, April 1[illegible].—The committee of [illegible] on the [illegible] of the committee of 100 made their report as follows:

The committee [illegible] appointed on the [illegible] April to nominate a committee of 100 to consider the interests of the city in respect to the railroads and other important matters affecting the public welfare respectfully report that the committee has been in session from day to day having under consideration the object mentioned. It has weighed carefully and dispassionately the existing [illegible] of the commercial interests of the city and city rights and interests. In this connection it has been governed by the desire to name gentlemen well known to the community and whose ability, integrity and [illegible] are beyond question and entitled to the fullest confidence. It is a pleasure to be able to state that in this choice the committee has been unanimous. Besides the names selected there have been others whom this committee would have deemed it advantageous to have added to the list, many of such while in entire accord and warm sympathy with the objects of this organization have from various causes satisfactory to themselves and the committee been omitted. They however, will render effectual aid in their individual action, and will give to your body an unseen strength in their influence throughout the community. In the organization thus effected it is believed the public may and will confide, giving to its suggestions serious consideration, and to its acts hearty support. In fact without this endorsement of public sentiment this committee would be ineffectual in its purposes and powerless in its efforts. We feel confident that it will do much for the rights and interests of San Francisco and injustice to none.

The Committee also carefully considered the mode and plan of the organization of this body and submitted to your approval. These names have been selected with great care, and in the opinion of this Committee, because of their peculiar fitness for the positions to be filled, the gentlemen named have signified their acceptance of the offices assigned them, and it only now requires the assent of you gentlemen to the plan on organization and to the names proposed. This being done our official duties cease, and we resign to your administration all matters pertaining to its affairs. Dated San Francisco, April 17th, 1872.
S. H. Dewey, Jas. Otis, Alfred Wheeler, R. R. Swain, I. F. Northam, H. A. Cobb, Alex. Austin.

On motion, the report was unanimously adopted as read—Messrs. J. T. Doyle, W. T. Coleman, Mr. Dows, Loring Pickering of the Bulletin, Fred. McCrellish of the Alta and several others addressed the meeting, which was enthusiastic and harmonious throughout.

Owing to the immense pressure of business only the Washoe list was called in the Stock Board this morning, and only outside stocks this afternoon. The sales in the morning Board were 20,640 shares, in the afternoon Board 30,820 shares; total sales for the day, 51,460 shares. The general upward movement appears to be a little checked to-day, with a disposition to shade off on some stocks. There was very little done on the streets after the Board.

Frank J. Deville, formerly bar tender in the Capital Saloon, was found dead in his room, 325 Kearny street, to-day. It is supposed that he was taken with an epileptic fit and fell and broke his neck.

The police raided along the city front this afternoon and arrested five parties for keeping shipping offices without licenses.

M. Rosenthal, a well known citizen, was arrested this evening on a charge of perjury.

Outside, coming in—Ship Edith from New York, with merchandise, to DeWitt, Kittle & Co.

Weather warm and cloudy, with promises of rain.

The Coroner has not yet finished the inquest in the case of Mrs. Burkhardt, but as Wilkerson, who killed her, has been held for trial for murder already, the inquest has lost its interest.

The following resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Committee of 100 to-day:

WHEREAS, The Central, Western and Southern Pacific Railroad Companies have received enormous grants of lands, subsidies, bonds and money from the Federal Government, from the State of California, from the various counties of the State, and from San Francisco, which grants and subsidies were more than sufficient for the entire construction and equipment of said roads, and whereas, this State and city have given said railroads large subsidies and valuable grants of land within this city, with the intention and understanding that such roads should make their terminus in the city of San Francisco and upon a tract of land granted for that purpose on Mission Bay, and whereas, said companies have obtained large grants of land on the opposite side of the bay in front of Oakland, and have directed the entire railroad system of the above lines, and all railroads of the coast, toward said last mentioned point in disregard of the conditions of said compact, and whereas, said companies have and are now making strenuous exertions to obtain from the Federal Government a grant or lease of Goat Island, lying in the bay of San Francisco midway between this city and the Oakland shore, for the purpose of a terminus of all the lines aforesaid, in spite of and against the expressed wishes of this city, and in defiance of the damage and danger to the harbor and commercial interests of this port, as conclusively demonstrated by the investigation and judgment of eminent engineers.

Resolved, That the city of San Francisco has the right to expect and does expect of said railroad companies a strict compliance with the terms and conditions of the compacts made by said companies, to wit: The actual and immediate location of the terminus of said railroads, now merged into one ownership, upon the sixty acres of land on Mission Bay in this city, and the actual and immediate abandonment on the part of said companies of any construction or proceeding having in view the fixing of such terminus at any other point whatsoever.

Resolved, That the citizens of San Francisco believe that said companies should withdraw from Congress immediately all claim, demand or request for any grant, lease or privilege of using or connecting said roads with Goat Island and at once cease all further construction of wharves, piers or slips in the channel of this bay at the terminus of their present Oakland wharf, or elsewhere.

Resolved, That in case said Company shall decline, refuse or omit to comply with this reasonable request, it is the right, duty and purpose of the citizens of San Francisco to take all lawful measures for maintaining their rights in the premises and to prevent said unlawful acts of said Companies.

Resolved, That if the city of San Francisco should be compelled to resort to legal tribunals to assert and maintain her rights as against said Companies, it would be proper and just that the grants and subsidies conditionally made to said railroads be annulled and set aside.

Resolved, That it is to the interest of San Francisco and of the said Companies, that there should be complete accord and harmony of action between them.

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of this Association be instructed to act upon and carry out the spirit of these resolutions and take such measures for so doing as in their judgment may be most efficient.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Leland Stanford and to every member of Congress and the Mayor of St. Louis and the President of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

Los Angeles, April 16.—A severe frost occurred in this county last night. Potatoes and crops suffered most, in many cases being killed to the roots. Grape, peach, walnut and other fruits are damaged. It was the most severe frost so late in the season for years.

From Anaheim, reports say a large part of the grape crop this year will be lost; others claim that the vines will sprout again and the crop not be materially shortened.

San Buenaventura, April 16.—The [illegible] needed rain commenced at 3 P. M. yesterday and until [illegible] A. M. to-day 1½ inches of water had fallen. Thousands of acres of [illegible] grain which would have amounted to nothing will now make a heavy yield.

[illegible], April 1[illegible].—The San Bernardino [illegible] says Mr. Sharp, just returned from Hardyville, brings news of rich placer mines having been discovered in the neighborhood of 200 miles above Hardyville on the Colorado. [illegible] says men are making $[illegible] per day. He is connected with fourteen others and came in after supplies. He will return immediately to the new Eldorado.

Salinas, April 17.—It has commenced raining and prospects for a continuance. Crops in this section are looking splendid.

San Diego, April 1[illegible].—Gov. Booth has offered a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the murderers of [illegible] Burke. This added to the reward offered by the Sheriff and citizens makes a total of $1,000.

The History of a Gambler

A [illegible] gentleman of full habit, noble [illegible] impressive appearance [illegible] at him, says the Cincinnati [illegible], started in to break up a faro bank on Race street on Friday night, not by the rifle and the [illegible] process of law, but by the more enlightened and legitimate method of winning out the bank roll. It so happened, however, as it frequently comes to pass, it is said that Lady Fortune did not favor his ambitious enterprise. In fact, luck was against him. He played too many on a side, unwisely augmented and diminished his bets at the wrong time, and the "Jack" proving a game-heard finally caught him for all he had.

When he had lost all the checks he could buy and borrow, absorbed his depleted pocket for the thirteenth time, and was still dead broke, with no prospect of winning out unless the house would pay for pistols, a happy thought struck him, and with the eyes of the entire crowd fixed inquiringly upon him, he belched forth a stunning set of gold-mounted false teeth. "There," said he to the colored boy in waiting, "take them teeth to some pawnbroker and see what he will give upon them. I ain't done with this here game yet." The boy returned with a ten-dollar bill, but this revenue had hardly put him in fighting trim again when the ravenous monster with which he was doing battle deprived him of his weapons at a single blow. He was "whip-sawed" on the first two casts.

"Well, it does beat all," he remarked, as he received this financial blow, "how many bets a man can lose. The dealer that had made such a deal as that in Kentucky would have had to leave the State. I will now go out and do a little trading myself." He retired for a short time, and returned with a few dollars for which he had sacrificed his overcoat. He lost the overcoat on another "game heard," and likewise his under-coat, which soon followed the former garment to the sign of the three balls. Nothing was now left him but a rough cloak, which the kind hearted pawnbroker had loaned him until he should redeem his other articles of wearing apparel, including his cravat and vest. These were "soaked" to a far-distant money lender, and the proceeds duly disappearing from the "big square," he was adjudged a complete bankrupt, and assigned to a prominent seat among the high players of former times.

About three o'clock in the morning, when all the players had deserted the room, and the dealers were counting up the game of the day in the dim light of the reduced gas, a dull-eyed, shriveled old man with sunken jaws and attenuated frame sat shivering at the fatal table, intently gazing upon his last "tab," and mumbling a complaint to himself that "if he had have had money, and played the last deal to 'double out,' he would have had many a check now." It was the once robust and noble-looking Kentuckian. He was a total wreck, but he thanked his Maker, still a "thoroughbred."

An Irish horse dealer sold a mare as sound in limb and wind, and without fault. It afterward appeared that the poor brute could not see at all out of one eye, and was almost blind of the other. The purchaser, discovering this, made heavy complaints to the dealer, and reminded him that he warranted the mare to be without fault. "To be sure," returned the other, "to be sure I did, but then, my dear sir, the poor creature's blindness is not her fault, but her misfortune."

A funny joke, and all the more palatable as its truth can be vouched for, says a New Jersey paper, occurred at a prominent church in that State. It seems that a worthy deacon had been very industrious in selling a new church book, costing 75 cents. At the service in question the minister, just before dismissing the congregation, rose and said: "All you who have children to baptize will please to present them next Sabbath." The deacon, who by the way was a little deaf, and having an eye to selling the books, and supposing the pastor was referring to them, immediately jumped up and shouted, "All of you who haven't any can get as many as you want, by calling me, at 75 cents each."

SPEEDY AND REMARKABLE CURES.

Still Another Testimonial from a Prominent Citizen of Greenville, Washington County.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—I WISH TO STATE THAT for nine years I was a great sufferer with Nasal Catarrh, Throat and Lung Disease, had discharges from my head, Cough, great difficulty of breathing, pains through my chest and Dyspepsia, was constantly getting weaker and losing flesh. No treatment seemed to relieve me. Hearing of Doctor Aborn's great success, I decided to try his skill in my case. On the 23d of January last I visited Portland and placed myself under his treatment, and found immediate relief of my pain in the breast, and the difficulty of breathing was also relieved at once, and I have continued to improve from day to day until now I feel quite well. I can breathe freely through my nostrils, which were almost entirely closed. My lungs are healing rapidly. I can now breathe quite clear and easy. I have gained about eleven pounds. My general health has been so much improved that I look and feel like a different man. I have been able to plough and do other work on my farm during the last three or four weeks without experiencing any difficulty. I am satisfied that the doctor's mode of treatment is based upon scientific principles and calculated to cure these diseases after the ordinary plans of treatment have failed.

Deafness of Ten Years' Standing Cured in a Few Days by Dr. Aborn.

I wish to state that for ten years I was deaf in my left ear and by submitting myself to Dr. Aborn's treatment for a few days I have had my hearing restored so that now I can hear the ticking of a watch quite a distance from my head. His treatment gave me no pain whatever. I reside near Springville.

Of Asthma, Bronchitis, Lung Disease and Catarrh,

AND A

GENERAL PROSTRATION OF THE WHOLE SYSTEM.

JACKSON POWELL, of Powell Valley, Oregon.

To the Afflicted.—To those who are afflicted like [illegible] I make the following statement of facts concerning [illegible]

For fifteen years I have been afflicted with Nasal Catarrh [illegible] so that I could not breathe through the nostrils [illegible] accompanied with disagreeable discharges. The disease worked down into my Throat and Lungs so that of late I have suffered with Asthma, so bad at times that [illegible] I could not live. I had almost a constant [illegible] expectoration and my whole system was prostrated. When I applied to DR. ABORN last November I did not expect [illegible] But thanks to DR. ABORN'S skillful and successful mode of treatment I to-day look and feel like a new man. I am entirely cured of the Asthma and Bronchial Disease. My nostrils are free, appetite good, flesh and healthy, and I have gained [illegible] pounds and have been able to work [illegible] weeks past. I have had the pleasure of witnessing several remarkable cures performed by DR. ABORN, and [illegible] that he possesses [illegible] skill in the treatment of [illegible] Diseases. I [illegible]

A Farcical Uproar

Another [illegible] effort [illegible] made by the "organ" to diversify the [illegible] humbug [illegible] which it wants to drag into a political canvass. Here we have it:

What is the origin of the issue this contest? [illegible] that the [illegible] company [illegible] certain rights [illegible] that, having certain rights [illegible] representing that corporation and [illegible] the most [illegible] aspires to the exercise of powers which no legislation ever gave him or intended to give him. He puts on the airs of a railroad king, claims prerogatives, as such, inconsistent with the public welfare, asserts that these prerogatives are "vested rights," beyond the reach of legislative control, and to back him in his monstrous pretensions has the pledged word of the whole Republican party.

For these assertions, so far as they have reference to a "certain man," we care nothing. The allegations in regard to him are none of our business. But so far as they have reference to the Republican party, they are absurdly false, shallow and ridiculous. What "monstrous pretensions" are they which it is asserted that the Republican party "back up?" The "vested rights" which are the object of this vehement and senseless denunciation are secured to corporations by the Constitution of the State. Corporations which possess those rights need no party to "back" them up. It is said further that the Republican party supports a "certain man" in "aspiring to the exercise of powers which no legislation ever gave him or intended to give him." This is mere crazy and untruthful platitude. All the "powers" the "man" has are secured to him by the Constitution and laws. We have never heard that he claims more, and no one can make his powers less. The "vested rights" are "beyond the reach of legislative control," because the supreme law of the State expressly makes them so. The Republican party is not "plighted" to give any man more than his legal rights, and all sensible men without regard to party will treat with contempt any proposition to divest any person of rights which the fundamental law expressly declares shall not be impaired. Here is more insane and empty twaddle like that above quoted:

> He claims the power to abuse the reasonable rights which legislation gave him for wise and different ends, so that the public are made the sufferers for his money-getting ambition; and the Republican press and party swear that he has a "vested right" to do so.

Leave declamation, and come to facts. Let us know what this "abuse of reasonable rights" is, which the Republican party is said to be "sworn" to support. Who "suffers?" If fares and freights are alluded to, though it is a subject which no party has anything to do with, the fact is indisputable that fares and freights here are no higher than on the railroads of Illinois. Though we fear we shall disgust all sensible readers with these quotations from the Herald, we venture to give one more:

> The OREGONIAN says that it was a Democratic Legislature that gave this man such rights, in reference to railroads, as he possesses. This is true, and now the Democracy propose to see to it that he shall not get certain other rights, or powers rather, which he claims, but which they never gave and never will give.

A Democratic Legislature gave him a land grant and thus enabled him to build up an incorporation under laws which give him the right and power to fix such rates for transportation as he may deem proper. Other persons may form similar incorporations and have the same right. The law is a general one. What the "certain other rights or powers are," the Herald does not condescend to say. They exist only in its imagination. The labored efforts of that paper are simply a farcical uproar. There is nothing whatever in its persistent allegations. They are as empty as the part of Snug the joiner, which was "nothing but roaring."

The "Independent" Movement.

What tremendous efforts have been made during the last few months to "break down" General Grant, the whole country knows. Every possible endeavor has been made to weaken his administration and to throw discredit upon it. That these attempts have utterly failed is proven conclusively by the fact that the masses of the people, who are not slow to detect real faults, but who are just to those public servants who deserve well, still put their trust in General Grant's integrity and are rallying with almost unexampled unanimity to support him for re-election. Had the charges that have been made possessed truth, or the semblance of it, Gen. Grant would inevitably have been abandoned by the people. No man could sustain himself under such fierce attacks, if the accusations contained even a color of truth. But Grant comes out unscathed, and the Republican masses, regardless of the erratic course of soured and disappointed politicians, are with one voice demanding his renomination.

To those who view the situation superficially it may appear that the "independent" movement is gaining great breadth and force. But it should be observed that it is wholly confined to politicians and has not worked down at all among the masses. The votes it can command are a paltry few. An attempt is made to create an impression all over the country that the defection is rapidly spreading; and the name of every politician who joins in it is reported with haste and telegraphed in all directions. In this way a great deal of noise is made, but those who look below the surface do not find much to back it.

A prodigious effort will be made to get up a great meeting at Cincinnati. And a great meeting as to numbers, may be expected. The city will be interested in having as large a meeting as possible. Every possible inducement will be held out. The railroads are to carry passengers free. People of all parties will be drawn there. But this Convention will have no mass of votes behind it. It will not be the product, the outgrowth, of any popular demand. It will not meet with popular sympathy. It will have no popular backing. The movement of which it will be the culmination had its start among politicians who deem themselves neglected and abused, and who want a party who will consider them its chief men.

The masses of both parties are intelligent enough to see that if this movement has any result at all, that result will be the restoration of the Democratic party to power. Hence Democrats are eager to see it go on. And for the same reason Republicans will beware of it. The movement has not yet attained the force and depth of that against Lincoln in 1864. We all remember what was the result at that time.

In his speech here the other evening Mr. Burnett expressed emphatic disapprobation of past acts of Congress granting lands to aid railroads, and declared that the country should be protected from such legislation in the future.

Lapwai Indian Agency.

We are indebted to Mr. Chas. Monteith for the following information in relation to the Lapwai Indian Agency. Mr. Monteith has just returned from the Agency, where he has been during the winter. There are under the care of this Agency about 3,200 Indians of the Nez Perce tribe. The Agent is J. B. Monteith, Esq., formerly of Linn county. He is assisted by twenty-two other persons in the various departments. The Indians have a much larger area of ground in cultivation this year than formerly, and will produce, if the crops should prove as good as common, about 12,000 bushels of wheat, 12,000 bushels of oats, 5,000 bushels of superior Indian corn, with a large quantity of vegetables. There are about one hundred acres in cultivation for the benefit of the Agency. The greatest pest to the crops is a species of large black crickets, and their advent is much feared. The Indians, however, are taking precautionary measures which will prevent those insects from doing much harm. A boarding school is kept up at the Agency, the average attendance during the past winter being about 45 pupils. The spring term began on the 1st inst. with an increased attendance.

Game and fish are found in great abundance, large quantities of the former being killed by the Indians in the adjacent mountains. A tri-weekly mail arrives from Walla Walla, and a strong probability exists of a daily service being placed on the route. Strange as it may seem, although missionaries have visited the Nez Perce Indians for a series of years, they have not advanced but little in learning the English language. Very few keep themselves in a tidy condition. One Company, the 1st U. S. Cavalry, is stationed at Ft. Lapwai, several miles from the Agency. Two companies are expected at an early day to strengthen the garrison. The Nez Perce tribe of Indians have generally been quite peaceably disposed and have generally given but little trouble in their management, though their progress in acquiring the arts of civilization has been slow. Mr. Monteith has been quite successful in his management of affairs and the prospect of the Indians for the future is quite hopeful. An official visitor, who was at the Agency a few days ago, characterizes Mr. Monteith's management as first class.

Here we have it at last! We have been told so many times by free traders that every tax upon importations was a tax upon the consumer, and not only so, but that it added the same tax to every article of the same character manufactured in the country, that we had come to the point of believing that the free trade party really supposed it was so. Now, what are we to think of the following extract from an article in the Commercial and Financial Chronicle of New York, a free trade paper, on the tea and coffee duties:

> But who, it is replied really wants these taxes repealed? Certainly not the poor man. If they were taken off to-day his cup of coffee would not cost him one cent less than now. This is conclusively proved by the fact that since the tax on coffee and tea was reduced forty per cent. on the 1st of January, 1871, the price to the consumer is not lower than before the reduction.

A London dispatch of the 12th inst. says that the French Transatlantic Telegraph Company have concluded a contract with the Telegraph Construction and Maintenance Company, for the laying of a fourth line of telegraphic cable between Europe and America. A prospectus of the American Atlantic Telegraph Company, proposing to lay a cable from Milford Haven, on the coast of Wales, to Rye Beach, N. H., direct, will be issued in a few days. The Press generally express great satisfaction at the prospect of cheaper rates, through the multiplication of lines between Europe and America.

What an amusing spectacle it is, says the Statesman, to see candidates and wire-pullers here in Oregon prating about Democracy, Democratic principles, etc., when their party has no national organization, and their leaders are all talking about the propriety of fusing with malcontent Republicans, either with or without a platform, or upon any declaration of principles that the Cincinnati Convention may adopt. Is it not about time for men of sense to abandon such a guerilla association?

In his speech last Monday evening Mr. Burnett dwelt at great length on what he was pleased to call the "antagonism" between capital and labor, which he declared was fostered and intensified by a protective tariff. In his opinion the oppressions of capital would, unless speedily checked, become as burdensome upon the masses here as in England, where one-sixth of the population are paupers. Mr Burnett forgot to add that England has long been a free-trade country.

Mr. Slater has been laboring for a railroad for Eastern Oregon. Mr. Burnett says it is "robbery."

---

NO WEIGHT.—New York has been so long one of the centers of Republican disaffection, growing out of local quarrels incomprehensible to the rest of the country, that the card of Messrs. Selden, Greeley, and their association, created no surprise. They do not speak for the Republicans of New York, not even for a faction of them, and if they go to Cincinnati as they promise, they go without a constituency. And if they return with the responsibility of a new party laid upon them, they will have to find a constituency among a class that will furnish strange bedfellows to some of them. This is essentially a New York demonstration, though bearing names from other sections of the State. Outside of the city, and out of the reach of the powerful commercial influences which prevail there, the Republican press and people are as united in favor of the Republican party, as now organized, as they are in New England. In this demonstration, Mr Greeley is naturally the most conspicuous figure: his sudden overturn on the subject of the tariff, and his indorsement of the body of the Missouri resolutions, is one of the curiosities of politics which it will trouble even him to deal with hereafter.

A clergyman—a Boston man, of course—in giving reminiscences of his parochial life, furnishes an epitaph written by one of his flock, and designed as a sort of posthumous revenge. A man—call him Gammon—married a widow with quite a property. She had one son, who very naturally and lawfully claimed to be the heir. After trying in various ways to get the property into his own possession, Gammon referred the property question to various of his neighbors, arguing the point with them; but they generally expressed themselves favorable to the son, much to Gammon's dissatisfaction, who came to regard such neighbors as his enemies. His spirit was so much stirred up as to make him express himself as being without friends even to give him a decent burial in case of death, much less to furnishing him with a gravestone to mark the place of his burial, and consequently he ordered a set of stones, and had them prepared and lettered, leaving the age and date of his death blank, with the following epitaph.

> Beneath this stone lies the body of one
> Shamefully treated in life
> By his wife's son and Thom
> And Daniel Seavey's wife.

The "Woman Question" Discussed at Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE, Oregon, April 11, 1872.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Sir: Mrs. Duniway has been holding forth in this busy little burg for four consecutive evenings on the "Woman Question," attracting the largest audiences ever known to assemble tightly in the place. She has been assisted by Boise, Sullivan, Watts and the "Oregon Baby," while her principal opponents have been a preacher named [illegible], well, who told some pointed stories, and Newby's "goose," the shyster lawyer of San Francisco Police Court notoriety, who succeeded in rebuking the opposition echoes in the minds of the respectable portion of the community who might otherwise have remained advocates of exclusive man suffrage. At the close of Mrs. D's last lecture, Newby's "goose" came forward and declared that if the women were enfranchised, they and the men would all get drunk at elections together; that woman's nature was easily led astray, and that but for the legislation of man to keep her decent, all of them would become prostitutes. Mrs. D. arose and said that she did not propose to discuss this great principle of human rights from a Police Court stand-point with "shyster" lawyers. If Lafayette could not produce respectable opponents to the movement, such men as Newby must hold man's right's meetings hereafter on their own responsibility. [Immense applause.]

Mrs. Jacobs was called to the stand, and she proceeded in a polite and womanly manner to annihilate the "goose," who, it is hoped, will know his station hereafter and keep it.

Mrs. Burbank and Mrs. Martin made short addresses during the progress of the meeting, also a number of gentlemen, whose names are omitted in this report. Altogether, it was the most interesting succession of meetings ever held in Lafayette.

A SPECTATOR.

A "Rally" that Didn't Come Off.

LAFAYETTE, April 16, 1872.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Sir: Last week it was announced publicly that on "Monday night (last night) there would be a grand Democratic rally at the Court House," and very little else was talked of on the streets. Everybody made preparation to attend—the women more particularly. During the day it leaked out that Ben Hayden was in town and would attend the rally. Evening came; 7 o'clock, 8 o'clock, and no bell announced the rally. So we all laid aside our garments and went to bed, disappointed. This morning the inquiry was on everybody's lips, "What became of the rally?" The answer is: "The Court had a very important case under consideration, and could not give up the Court-room." Mighty reason! Just think of it—that a Democratic Court (by the way, one of Grover's pets), that would allow Judge Boise and Mrs. Duniway the use of the Court-room every evening last week, should suddenly find business so pressing that he would not allow it for the use of the grand Democratic rally of the season! Did Ben Hayden's presence here have anything to do with it? It is rumored that it is the determination of the Grover wing to choke Ben Hayden off and consign him to a political grave. They can do it here, but Ben will die game.

Mrs. Duniway failed to obtain a house in McMinnville last evening in which to make a speech, whereat she is very indignant with the McMinnvillers.

OREGON.

South Salemites are to have gas introduced into their burg.

The weather at Baker City for the last few days is reported to have been disagreeably cold.

J. B. Foster of Baker county has captured a bald eagle full grown which has become quite docile.

Captain Applegate, Agent of the Klamath Indian Reservation, has been relieved by Superintendent Odeneal.

The estimated cost of running the municipal government of Salem for the next year is fourteen thousand dollars.

Great activity in the wool market prevails in Josephine county. Parties from San Francisco have been in that county offering prices ranging from 50@60 cents per pound for this spring's clip.

On the 30th of last month a new gold bearing quartz ledge in Eagle District was discovered by Ham & Co., formerly of Canyon City. The ledge runs across the head of Blue Gulch, on Powder River Slope.

The Times, Jacksonville, says: "The results of this season's work in the mines of Southern Oregon will doubtless put a large amount of money in circulation, and livelier times than we have had for many years will be the consequence."

The Jacksonville Sentinel of the 13th inst. says: "Hailing, snowing and wintry blasts has been the order of the week. This morning the mountains, foothills and valley were covered with snow. Great fears are entertained that fruits of all kinds will be vastly injured if not utterly ruined."

The last number of the Democratic Times is very severe on J. R. Neil, the candidate of the Possums for Prosecuting Attorney in the First Judicial District, and says: "It will not be denied for a moment that the foisting of Neil upon this district as Prosecuting Attorney has created a feeling of intense dissatisfaction throughout Jackson and Josephine counties. Nor will it be denied that that nomination was accomplished by a most bare-faced fraud."

The Statesman of yesterday says final arrangements have been made by the Odd Fellows of Salem for an appropriate celebration of the fifty third anniversary of that Order in America by an excursion to Aurora. The following committee of arrangements were appointed by the Salem Lodges: John G. Wright of Chemeketa Lodge, T. C. Dudley of Anniversary, A. L. Stinson of Olive, F. G. Schwatka of the Encampment, and Mrs S. A. Reily of the Rebecca Degree Lodge. The Lodges will appear in full regalia and go in for a good time.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Idaho Herald has suspended publication—perhaps permanently.

The gold diggings on Colorado river are averaging ten to twenty dollars a day.

The late County Treasurer of Walla Walla county and his bondsmen have been sued by the county.

Business of all kinds is reported very dull at Olympia—everybody is waiting to have the railroad terminus located, and no one knows which side of the bay it will be on.

A. Kyger, the former County Treasurer of Walla Walla county, having been robbed of all the county funds has resigned and Major R. R. Rees has been appointed in his stead.

Prominent citizens of Walla Walla offer a reward of $1,000 for the detection and arrest of the burglar or burglars who stole the county treasure. In the opinion of the editor of the Statesman, a smart detective could readily ferret out the whole mystery.

The pioneer narrow gauge railway, the Denver and Rio Grande Line, has finished grading and bridging its second division of forty two miles from Colorado Springs to Pueblo, Colorado. Track laying will be commenced immediately, and by the middle of April regular trains will be running from Denver to Pueblo, 118 miles.

The Walla Walla Statesman says: "H. C. Ward, in charge of a surveying party for the North Pacific Railroad, left Walla Walla on Monday last, with twenty men, for the purpose of running a line from the mouth of the Palouse to intersect Pen d'Oreille Lake, and thence to Montana. He is under instructions to report as soon as possible, as it is the intention of the Company to let a contract to build 250 miles of the road without delay.

An American lady, the other day, in London, went to church in a hat, not knowing the English prejudice concerning that article being worn in the sanctuary. All her friends looked at her very gravely, and spoke coldly. She could not imagine what was the matter and asked her husband if there was anything wrong about her head. He scrutinized her, and told her no, but still she could see that it was the object of attention, and that many looked at her askance. Glad when church was out, and not satisfied that something was not out of place or awry, she stopped in at a friend's who had lived lately in London, and told her of her embarrassment. "Why," said her friend, "it is that hat." "The hat! What is the matter with the hat?" said the young wife, taking it off her head. "My bonnet did not come from Paris and the hat is a real beauty." "So it is," was the reply, "but it is a highly improper head-covering to be worn in church—an abomination to English women. Your wearing it was a serious misdemeanor, the worst Miss is not allowed to wear a hat to service. Seeing that your hat was wrong, people supposed something was wrong with you. You can wear a hat almost anywhere else, but if you want to go to church in England, and be thought respectable, you must put on a bonnet."

Clatsop Co. Republican Convention.

The Republicans of Clatsop county will meet by delegates in County Convention at the Court House in Astoria on Saturday, May 4, 1872, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various county officers to be elected at the coming June election, and for transacting any other business that may come before the Convention. It is recommended that the precinct meetings be held on Saturday, the 27th day of April, at 1 o'clock P. M., at the usual places of voting. The several precincts are entitled to delegates as follows, to-wit:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Westport | 2 | Astoria | [illegible] |
| Clatsop Plains | 5 | Nehalem | 1 |

By order of the County Committee.

GEO. DAVIDSON, Chairman.

Astoria, April 15, 1872.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

JOSEPH G. WILSON and JOHN BURNETT, candidates for Congress will address the citizens of the following places at the times stated:

Sublimity, April 18th, 3 o'clock P. M.
Albany, April 19th, evening.
Brownsville, 20th, 1 o'clock P. M.
Eugene City, April 22d, 1 o'clock P. M.

Still Another Remarkable Cure

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—For two years I was afflicted with Rheumatism, and tried all the known remedies, but experienced nothing more than a temporary relief, the disease always returning. Some months since I concluded to take your Unk Weed Remedy, and the result was a Speedy and Permanent Cure of the Rheumatism being entirely eradicated from the system. The "UNK" is also a Tonic of the very highest order. It increases the appetite, and invigorates the body. I cheerfully bear testimony to its good effect upon me, and feel sure that it will do all you claim for it.

Very truly yours,
J. W. TRIPP,
(Of McGraw & Tripp, Attorneys-at-Law),
408 California Street.

CITY.

WHAT HAS BECOME OF HIM?—The man [illegible] has been missing [illegible] has been [illegible] with all kinds of rumors. First the [illegible] was recovered and then again it wasn't. [illegible] one had been arrested charged with [illegible] and then again they hadn't. And now we [illegible] another rumor purporting [illegible] on Monday a fellow was seen [illegible] at the office [illegible] that place whom it is believed was the [illegible] of the missing man. He came up [illegible] and proceeded to a photograph gallery [illegible] his picture taken. When he learned [illegible] reported) that the artist was compelled [illegible] the negative on glass, he seriously objected [illegible] that, and stated (so report says) that he did not want his picture to be seen lying around [illegible] gallery. But he was at last prevailed upon [illegible] for a picture. He opened a pocket book to take therefrom some money to pay the artist when [illegible] on the back of that memorandum book was the name "William Alexander." On leaving the gallery, he went to a store and purchased a [illegible] suit of clothes, for this piece of information we are again compelled to rely on report; and again produced the pocket book with the name of the man whom he had murdered written upon the back. The report had reached Salem at that time of the disappearance of Alexander and this very strange individual (report is our informant) took the cars and went south. Suspicion was at once fastened upon him and this same fellow which is called report goes so far as to declare that several [illegible] are in hot pursuit of the fleeing fugitive. In this confused condition of affairs what is to be relied upon as authentic? The Salem Statesman, however, comes boldly forward and throws a few faint gleams of light on this "disappearance subject." It says: "We may say, in [illegible] to the mystery that during Monday forenoon a [illegible] man who gave his name as Alexander was in this city and that while here he conducted himself so strangely and spent money with such reckless disregard of expense, as to excite the suspicion that there was something wrong with him. He might have been really the missing man. He went south from here on the railroad." Chief of Police Lappeus received a dispatch from Salem, on Tuesday stating that a suspicious individual was at that place. Nothing further has been ascertained.

A "DEER STORY."—We have just heard of the [illegible] remarkable adventures of a deer in East [illegible], which we give our readers. A Mr [illegible], residing in that place has a young pet [illegible] deer about one year old. The animal is very gentle, and of quite an adventurous turn [illegible], as the following will show. One day [illegible], the deer went up to the residence of Mr. [illegible], to give them a neighborly call. He walked in at the front gate, which was open and went up the steps leading to the porch. From the porch, he passed through the front door into the hall, then up stairs, along a hall some twenty feet or more, into a bedroom on the south side of the house, and through a half window which was hoisted. There being a porch or shed roof on the [illegible] side of the house, extending around the east end and forming a "hip roof," the deer walked out on the roof, then east about twenty feet, over the "hip roof" at the eastern end of the building, put his head in at a window and [illegible] the inmates of the apartment by his sudden and unexpected appearance. The animal then turned around and proceeded back the way he had come, passed by the window he came out at and proceeded along on the roof. At the west end of the house there is a porch and railing about three feet higher than the roof on which the deer had been walking. He leaped over the [illegible], went in at an open door, through a [illegible] room, along the hall and down stairs to the front door where he first came in at. Having seen everything of interest up stairs, his deership concluded he would inspect the lower story. He [illegible] walked deliberately into the parlor then into the hall, from there to the sitting room, dining room, into the kitchen, out at the back door, down the stairs and out again at the front gate, with his singular curiosity seemingly gratified. During his tour of inspection, he did not offer to molest or interfere with anything and out of mere curiosity to see what the animal would do, the members of the family did not prevent it from wandering at will. The deer is quite tame, but in this adventure it seemed to have been guided by some unusually strange instinct. This story, we are assured, is true in every particular, and altogether regarded rather "discounts" our down street contemporary's "bear story." Where is Barnum now?

A LITTLE ROMANTIC.—All have heard the expression, "truth is stranger than fiction." A [illegible] little piece of romance has reached us which we will give, in order to illustrate some of the many phases of human existence. Twenty five years ago a [illegible] man who resides at present in this city—his name makes no difference—married the woman of his choice. Everything went smoothly along for a time, as merry as a wedding bell, and all that sort of thing, you know, but domestic storms came at length wrecked their hopes and engulfed their happiness. Separation followed and close upon its heels came a divorce. The gentleman after the lapse of several years took to his bosom another "weaker vessel." With his second wife he lived a number of years. At length she died and he was again left spouseless. Meantime the first wife had copied the example set her by her former [illegible] and taken another husband. They lived happily together for a long time when he passed [illegible] his checks, and she was once more a widow. Here comes the romance: after many tribulations and vicissitudes the long separated and estranged couple meet again. They had grown much older and had accumulated a larger share of experience, patience and judgment. Old associations were revived, a reconciliation was effected, both [illegible] to think and act again; they took the second sober thought, concluded to try matrimony again, and the gentleman took out the license yesterday. Thus after many long years of separation this [illegible] advanced couple in life have united their broken destinies and have started life anew. This is real romance and no mistake.

A VILLAINOUS STINK.—Between Alder and [illegible] Streets, on Second, the sanitary condition of affairs is in a most woful plight. The [illegible] who denizen those precincts have been in the habit of emptying garbage and offal in the street, until the locality emits a villainous stench, [illegible] to create an epidemic. Let those who are incredulous have occasion to pass there some warm day, and their olfactories will doubtless convince them of the truth of this statement. If not already done, notice should be promptly served on the Celestials.

BAD CONDITION.—A cotemporary speaks as follows about the city wharves: "The wharves along the city front are in a dangerous condition. The planks in many cases are even loose, and act like a spring board making a trap to those having business on the wharf. Not only are the planks bad, but the supports on which rest the [illegible] they are in many places loose and rotten. As the weather begins to grow warm and the river [illegible] in consequence some one may yet have cause to mourn the loss of goods, if not of life, by the giving way of these posts."

STEAM SHOVEL.—A large steam shovel was brought up on the [illegible] Tuesday evening to be used by the railroad company. This shovel will [illegible], when in proper running condition, the work of over one hundred men, having a capacity of one and a half yards of earth. About three hundred shovels full of earth can be lifted per hour. This shovel is one of the largest on the coast. It will be put together at once and be used in the cuts on the West Side road in filling cars with dirt intended for the filling of G street.

DECORATION DAY.—The 30th day of May is set apart as sacred to the memory of the dead Union soldiers and the memorial rite of decorating their graves will be symbolized by Lincoln Post, No 1 G A R at the Court House in this city, on the evening of that day. Honorably discharged soldiers, military companies, societies and associations desiring to join in the procession will meet at the hall of Baker Post, corner [illegible] and Madison streets at [illegible] P M sharp.

NOTHING DISCOVERED.—In pursuance with the orders of the Chief of Police Mr Carroll, the diver, went down to the bottom of the river in his submarine armor yesterday. He carefully examined the bottom at the point where the [illegible] of the missing man Alexander is supposed to have been thrown from the wharf. [illegible] was discovered but a few [illegible] which had been thrown overboard and some other articles.

NEW LINE.—A telegraphic wire was yesterday stretched from the corner of [illegible] College corner of Alder and Front streets to the Western Union Telegraph Office, in the Cosmopolitan building. Connection is established between these two points for the purpose of allowing pupils in telegraphy to practice, as has [illegible] the branch has been taught at the College.

COMMON COUNCIL

An ordinance to make an appropriation out of the general fund to the police fund of $1 000. Passed.

An ordinance providing for the improvement of North Fourth and Fourth streets between the center of Jefferson street and the north side of G street. The ordinance was read a third time, placed on its final passage and passed. Subsequently a motion was made, and carried to reconsider the vote taken on the ordinance. When placed again on its final passage with an amendment the ordinance was lost.

RESOLUTIONS.

A resolution from the Committee on Streets and Public Property in relation to the proposed extension of Columbia street from Eighth to Fourteenth. Adopted.

A resolution from the same Committee in relation to the extension of Mill street from Tenth to Twelfth. Adopted.

Council adjourned.

PORTLAND, HILLSBORO AND CENTERVILLE PLANK ROAD COMPANY

Articles of incorporation were filed in the Clerk's office yesterday of the above named company, by J C Hawthorne, Joseph Kellogg, [illegible] Corbett, Jacob Stitzel, C M Carter, L P W Quimby, R J Ladd, C C Way, J D Merryman, James Imbrie, W A Mills and John C Trullinger in pursuance of an act providing for private incorporations and the appropriation of private property.

The name of the company proposed to be incorporated is the Portland, Hillsboro and Centerville Plank Road Company.

CITY CLOCK.—In relation to the lighting of the city clock, a communication was read from the Portland Gas Company before the City Council last evening. A proposition was submitted by the Company to make a reduction of twenty per cent on the regular rates for lighting the town clock. No definite action has been taken yet about this matter, although there is no reason for a longer delay. It is to be sincerely hoped that some arrangement will be effected at once. A paltry appropriation of a few hundred dollars would be sufficient to furnish the clock with light the year round.

BOOKS.—The following new work has just been received and added to the Portland Library: All Over Oregon and Washington. Observations on the Country, Its Scenery, Climate and Improvements, with an outline of its early History and remarks on its Geology, Botany, Mineralogy etc, also hints to immigrants and travelers concerning routes, the cost of travel, the price of land, etc. By Mrs Frances Fuller Victor, author of "River of the West."

CHANGE OF BOUNDARIES.—The residents of School District No 1 are anxious to have the boundaries of that District extended so as to cover fifteen acres in Watson's Addition lying adjacent to Couch's Addition. It is claimed that if this extension is made they will be able to maintain a school the year round. With the present boundaries a portion of the year there is no school in the District.

DELEGATES.—At a regular meeting of Samaritan Lodge No 2 I O O F, the following [illegible] brothers were elected as Delegates to attend the coming session of the Grand Lodge, to be held at Salem during the next month: W [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] J H Lyon, C C [illegible], W H Wat[illegible], [illegible] M [illegible], J [illegible], J M Sutton.

PASSOVER.—The Jewish Passover will commence next Monday, continuing eight days. Messrs Wood & Co have prepared a large quantity of [illegible] which have been [illegible] [illegible] of the [illegible].

[illegible].—We learn that the Japanese Troupe [illegible] San Francisco, will [illegible] have [illegible] this city very [illegible] and [illegible] over and to California [illegible] Railroad.

LECTURE ON WOMAN'S RIGHTS.—Mr T [illegible] Murphy [illegible] will lecture in this city on Saturday evening, on Shoddyism, Female [illegible] and Woman's Rightsism. The hall will be named hereafter.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATER.—"Pet of the Petticoats" and "Paddyfoot," was produced at the Theater last evening to a fair house. The performance was first class, and well received by the audience. This evening Bulwer's great play of "Lady of Lyons" will be produced.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.—The Committee of Arrangements appointed by the several Lodges of Odd Fellows in this city and East Portland have concluded to hold their anniversary celebration at the East Portland Park. It will occur on the 26th inst and will doubtless prove an interesting occasion. The exercises of the day will conclude with a grand party under the auspices of the order at some suitable hall in this city.

The Montgomery Guard ball at Armory Hall was well attended last evening, considering the lateness of the season. Gen Bell, commander of the 3d brigade, and staff, besides a large number from the other companies, were present, to help the new company make the affair a brilliant one. The hall was decorated with flags and wreaths and the party when our reporter left, was moving along in a manner agreeable to all present. The music for the occasion was furnished by the East Portland Band. Thirty five names are now on the muster roll of the Guard and new members are being added.

LITERARY AND MUSICAL.—The ladies and gentlemen engaged in conducting the literary and musical entertainments at the Unitarian church last night were greeted by a well filled house and the occasion was doubtless a financial success. The musical part of the evening's programme was very good, and many of the singers were loudly applauded. The readings, by three or four gentlemen, did the gentlemen credit and greatly amused and instructed the audience—though the articles read were generally too lengthy for such an occasion. The entertainments given under the auspices of this church are always both amusing and instructive, and never fail to receive the praise of the intelligent and refined audiences which attend them. They will well bear repetition.

ARTILLERY COMPANY.—Capt Tom Mountain has enrolled twenty-one men in the new Artillery Company, he is now organizing. He expects to have fifty men on the roll within a month.

IT IS UNIVERSALLY ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE DOWNER Kerosene Oil is the highest grade in the market and it is also a fact that after an examination of over 300 samples of Coal Oil by Prof Price, in the interest of the Insurance Companies, Downer's Kerosene was found to be the best and safest. ### Diseased Digestion

If chronic indigestion affected the stomach only it [illegible], but unhappily [illegible] headache and terrible mental [illegible] are among its usual accompaniments. In fact, every organ [illegible] of the frame sympathizes with the debilitated and diseased stomach. What is needed in such a case? Clearly an alterative and invigorant, and such [illegible] Hostetter's Stomach Bitters [illegible]. Mere purgatives only deplete the system of the [illegible] strength that disease has left it. Salivants have the same effect. The whole internal [illegible] has gone wrong, and can only be put right and kept so by a medicine in which the tonic and stimulating effects predominate but are qualified and modified by anti-bilious aperients and blood purifying components. Now, the truth is (and the medical faculty as well as the public know the fact) that Hostetter's Bitters contain every ingredient requisite for the cure of dyspepsia and all the ailments of body and mind which it involves. This has been proved in so many [illegible] [illegible] that [illegible] idle to repeat [illegible].

A Legend of the Northland.

BY PHOEBE CARY.

Away, away in the Northland,
Where the hours of the day are few,
And the nights are so long in winter
They cannot sleep them through;

Where they harness the swift reindeer
To the sledges when it snows;
And the children look like bears' cubs,
In their funny, furry clothes.

They tell them a curious story—
I don't believe 'tis true;
And yet you may learn a lesson,
If I tell the tale to you.

Once when the good St. Peter
Lived in the world below,
And walked about it preaching,
Just as he did you know,

He came to the door of a cottage,
In traveling round the earth,
Where a little woman was making cakes,
And baking them on the hearth;

And being faint with fasting,
For the day was almost done,
He asked her, from her store of cakes,
To give him a single one.

So she made a very little cake,
But as it baking lay,
She looked at it, and thought it seemed
Too large to give away.

Therefore, she kneaded another,
And still a smaller one;
But it looked, when she turned it over
As large as the first had done.

Then she took a tiny scrap of dough
And rolled and rolled it flat;
And baked it thin as a wafer—
But she couldn't part with that.

For she said, " My cakes that seem too small
For me when I eat of them myself,
Are yet too large to give away."
So she put them on the shelf.

Then good St. Peter grew angry,
For he was hungry and faint;
And surely such a woman
Was enough to provoke a saint.

And he said, " You are far too selfish
To dwell in a human form,
To have both food and shelter,
And a fire to keep you warm.

"Now, you shall build as the birds do,
And shall get your scanty food
By boring, and boring, and boring,
All day in the hard, dry wood."

Then she went up through the chimney,
Never speaking a word,
And out of the top flew a woodpecker,
For she was changed to a bird.

She had a scarlet cap on her head,
And that was left the same;
But all the rest of her clothes were burned,
Black as a coal in the flame.

And every country school-boy
Has seen her in the wood,
Where she lives in the trees to this very day
Boring and boring for food.

And this is the lesson she teaches,
Live not for yourself alone,
Lest the needs you will not pity
Shall one day be your own.

Give plenty of what is given you,
Listen to pity's call;
Don't think the little you give is great,
And the much you get is small.

Now, my little boy, remember that,
And try to be kind and good,
When you see the woodpecker's sooty dress,
And see her scarlet hood.

You mayn't be changed to a bird, though you live
As selfishly as you can;
But you will be changed to a smaller thing—
A mean and selfish man.

HUMOROUS.

The editor of a cotemporary writes that the "woman who has smoothed his ruffled bosom for years, called to say she could not do it hereafter under nine shillings a week."

"I can speak several different languages," said a convict, as he entered a penitentiary. "No matter," said the keeper; "we have only one language here, and very little of that."

A drover, who sells his cattle by live weight, always gives them as much water as they will drink before driving them on the scales. "That," he says, "is what I understand by watering stock."

"Emily, how do you do?" "I am very well, Julia. I [illegible] my wooden wedding [illegible]." "Why, I didn't know you were married. How did you celebrate it?" "By marrying a blockhead."

The Savannah News announces to those who want their poems published, that the proprietors of that paper have unsurpassed facilities for that kind of work, and that the usual charge is eight dollars a line.

The first woman who crossed the new bridge over the Ohio between Newport and [illegible] was a young lady of Kentucky, escaping with her lover to be married in Ohio, despite the will of "unkind" parents.

Colonel G. was very fat, and a bankrupt. He was met one day by one of his creditors with a "How do you do, Colonel?" "Pretty well; you see I hold my own yet." "Yes," said the other, "and mine, too, to my sorrow."

"Mister, where are you going with that horse?" asked a gentleman of a suspicious-looking man, whom he met on horseback. "Well, I hain't a goin' nowhere with him," said the other, "but he is going somewhere with me."

A youthful novice in smoking turned deathly pale and threw his cigar away. "O, dear!" he said, "there's some'in' in that cigar that's [illegible]." "I know what it is," said [illegible], puffing away. "What?"

A lady who was very submissive and modest before marriage was observed by a friend to use her tongue pretty freely after. "There was a time," he remarked, "when I almost imagined she had no tongue." "Yes," said the husband, with a sigh, "but it's very, very long since."

A young man asked his sweetheart if he might be permitted to kiss her, and give her an affectionate hug. "No," said she, "I can't allow that; but I tell you what I will do; I'll split the difference with you—you may kiss me and I'll hug you."

Said a tipsy husband to his wife, "You needn't bl-l-ame me. 'Twas woman that first tem-tempted man to eat forbidden things." "That won't do," returned the indignant wife." "Woman may have first tempted man to eat forbidden things, but he took to drinking of his own accord."

In a police case in New York, a youth, ten years of age, was placed on the stand to give his testimony. The lawyer, as usual, asked the boy if he knew the nature of an oath, and received an affirmative reply. When asked what they do to persons who swear to a lie, he replied, "They make policemen out of 'em."

A story is told of a soldier who was frozen in Siberia. His last remark was: "It is ex—" He then froze stiff as marble. In the summer of 1860 some physicians found him, after having lain frozen for one hundred and fifteen years. They gradually thawed him, and upon animation being restored he concluded his sentence with—"exceedingly cold."

As a Judge was delivering his decision in a case the other day, he was interrupted by the vociferous braying of a donkey under one of the windows of the court room. "What is that?" testily asked the Judge, whereupon the lawyer against whom he was deciding the case arose and remarked: "It is merely the echo of the court, your honor."

The Teutonic tailor of a Pennsylvania village, having married a second wife indecently soon after the funeral of the first, the young men of the place notified their disapproval by a tin horn serenade during the progress of the feast. The vulgar fraction of a man expostulated in the following style "I say, poys, you ought to be ashamed of yourselfs to be making all dis noise ven dare vas a funeral here so soon!"

A Yale junior went recently to call on a young lady, and staying rather late, and being fearful of waking up the family who had retired, took off his shoes and went to the front door in his stocking feet. Just as he emerged, however, with his shoes in his hands, he was seized by a policeman, and only succeeded with great difficulty, after explanations by himself and the lady, in escaping temporary incarceration.

One of the most distant points from which contributions were received for the relief of Chicago was Singapore, where more than $2,000 in gold was raised.

Chicago is putting up $12,000,000 worth of hotels.

A good story is told of an Illinois gentleman, whose home is in Peoria, and who is connected with the Peoria Railroad. Immediately on hearing of the great fire in Chicago he made arrangements for the free transportation of provisions over the road. He then purchased a number of good hams and sent them home, with the request to his wife to cook them for Chicago. He then ordered the baker to put up fifty loaves of bread. He was kept busy during the day until five o'clock. Just as he was starting for home the baker informed him that the hundred loaves of bread were ready.

"But I only ordered fifty," said Mr. H.

"Mrs. H—— also ordered fifty," said the baker.

"All right," said he, and inwardly blessed his wife for the generous deed.

Arriving at home he found his little boy dressed in a fine cloth suit, carrying in wood. He told him to change his clothes.

"But mother sent all my clothes to Chicago," replied the boy.

He sat down to supper without butter, because all that could be purchased had been sent to Chicago. There were no pickles—the poor souls in Chicago would relish them so much.

A little "put out," but not a bit angry, Mr. H—— went to the wardrobe to get his overcoat, but it was not there. An interrogatory revealed the fact that it fitted in the box "real nicely," and he needed a new overcoat anyway, although he had paid fifty dollars for the one in question only a few days before. Further examination revealed the fact that all the rest of his clothes fitted the box "real nicely," for not a garment did he possess except those he had on.

While he admitted the generosity of his wife, he thought the matter was getting entirely too personal, and turned to her with the characteristic inquiry:

"Do you think we can stand an encore on that Chicago fire?"

He who is faithful in little things is always found faithful in whatever circumstances he may be placed, while the man who despises the day of small things, who passes by little opportunities as too trivial for his notice, always turns out a miserable failure when brought to the test of great opportunities and responsibilities.

A negro who was suspected of surreptitiously meddling with his neighbor's fruit, being caught in the garden by moonlight, nonplused his detectors by raising his eyes, clasping his hands, and piously exclaiming: "Good Lord! dis yere darkey can't go nowheres to pray any more widout bein' disturbed."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, April 17, 1872.

Gold in New York, 111¼—a rise.

Greenbacks, 90c buying and 91c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool on the 12th inst. was 11s 6d—a decline.

The steamer Ajax reached this port last evening with a large passenger list, and 575 tons of assorted cargo. Her list of freight will be found below.

Brig Orient, Wheelwright, master, sailed from San Francisco for this port on the 13th inst., with a large cargo of assorted merchandise. List of consignees will be found under appropriate head.

Bark Webfoot sailed from San Francisco for this port on the 8th inst. with 335 tons of railroad iron for the N. P. R. R. and 250 tons railroad iron for the O. & C. R. R. She brings one locomotive for the North Pacific Railroad.

Bark Almatia is now loading at San Francisco a full cargo for Portland.

Brig Perpetua is loading at the same place with 250 tons of iron. She will complete her cargo with general merchandise.

The bark Rival will soon follow the Perpetua.

The Wallamet Woolen Mills, of Salem, are now running on full time. About eighty operatives are employed. The mills are now running on a large lot of Cloth for the China trade and filling numerous orders for San Francisco firms.

The San Francisco Bulletin learns that the P. M. S. S. Co. have about completed their arrangements for increased steamship service between that port and Panama. Their steamers now leave San Francisco for Panama and vice versa twice a month; and under the new arrangement, they will make three trips instead of two each way, leaving each port every ten days. There is a steady increase in the coastwise freighting business, especially with the Central American and Southern Mexican ports; and the change in the management of the Panama R. R. Co. enables the Company to largely increase its through freight and passenger traffic, which will account for the proposed increase in the number of trips between this port and Panama and Panama and New York.

Latest mail advices from San Francisco bring the following: Rice, market languid under pressure of full stocks. The demand for all Refined Sugars exceeds the supply. Bags, Standard Burlap, scarce and somewhat higher; heavy lots sold to arrive at 17½c; Hessians, scarce and wanted. Boots and Shoes, stocks very full and demand large. Lumber, Oregon Fir, $16@30 for rough and dressed; Redwood, same. Candles, Grant's, 18c; receipts from the East very large. Coal, Coos Bay and other Coast Coals, unchanged; Anthracite very high and scarce; Cumberland in limited supply and jobbing at high prices. Dry Goods and Clothing, market active with rising tendency for Woolens and other Staple Goods. Glassware, prices higher in consequence of advance in cost of materials used in making; agents of Pacific Glass Works have advanced their prices to correspond with those of foreign Glassware, say from fifteen to twenty per cent. Hardware, stocks light and advancing. Nails, imports for first quarter of the present year show an increase over the same period last year of more than 25,000 kegs; prices steadily advancing both at San Francisco and the East. Bacon, market well stocked with Eastern, which is selling at reduced rates; Clear Sides, by the invoice, selling at 10@10½c. Quicksilver, demand exceeds the current supply.

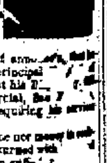
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW [illegible]
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal [illegible] Europe, and has resumed practice at his [illegible] Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San F[illegible] where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with [illegible] facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a [illegible] existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from [illegible] absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid [illegible] and disfigured faces and their broken [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid [illegible] made suffer until death closes the scene. [illegible] guardians, friends, attend to those who are [illegible] any of these horrible life-destroying [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be too late, [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, [illegible] made private disease his especial study for years, and [illegible] is certain to cure the most inveterate cases [illegible] cury or any injurious drugs. It is [illegible] who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] public by using the names of eminent ph[illegible] Europe and other places. Be therefore careful [illegible] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of [illegible] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an alarming [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by [illegible] ical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new [illegible] disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, [illegible] sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief is not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never failed of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] rily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are [illegible] under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Post-office or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco Quacks and pretenders [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] whose names are to be found [illegible] daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco [illegible] their places are tradesmen and became doctors [illegible] Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, [illegible] the San Francisco Directory and you will find [illegible] Medical Institutes [illegible] but you will find [illegible] occupation [illegible] Look at the Directory [illegible] The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in nine cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus [illegible] certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
